Four Arrested For Animal Neglect And Abuse

On August 22, 2012 at approximately 10:00 a.m. Beaverton Police Officers were dispatched to the 11000 block of SW 11th Street on a reported animal abuse occurring now.

Multiple neighbors called the police to report two or three Pit Bull's being assaulted by the owners in the back yard of the residence. The reports were that the dogs were being struck with a shovel and a hammer.

After the officers spoke with witnesses it was determined that an assault of these dogs did occur. The officers contacted the Oregon Humane Society and Washington County Animal Control. Investigators from both organizations responded and assisted with this incident.

Four individuals that live in this residence were arrested and lodged at the Washington County Jail for animal neglect and animal abuse. The three males were also charged with disorderly conduct, for threatening neighbors that were telling them to stop hurting the dogs. The individuals are identified as.

Carl Leroy Crosswhite Jr. 43 years of age.

Stanford Ray Evans 59 years of age.

Steven Mathew Young 36 years of age.

Darlene Sarah Exendine 48 years of age.

There were 10 Pit Bull's that were taken from the residence, four were surrendered to the Oregon Humane Society by the owner and 6 were seized by the Beaverton Police Department. All of these animals are in the possession of the Oregon Humane Society for evaluation and treatment.
